Welcome to the 2013-2014 PERFORMING ARTS SEASON

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 2013-2014 Performing Arts Season at the Weidner Center for the Performing Arts.

This dynamic new season expends upon the last, offering additional performances in categories enjoying strong community attendance and support, namely in the areas of Broadway, comedy and family fare. We continue to offer important artistic offerings, as well, and invite you to join us in sampling evenings of opera, world music and drama.

In addition to describing our visiting shows and stars, this brochure showcases the Green Bay Symphony Orchestra’s centennial season of concerts and the excellent offerings of our award-winning UW-Green Bay Theatre and Music programs.

We are excited to present this attractive, entertainment-rich lineup, and we look forward to seeing you at the Weidner Center throughout the coming year.

Enjoy!

Thomas K. Harden, Chancellor
University of Wisconsin-Green Bay

THE REDUCED SHAKESPEARE COMPANY
The Complete World of Sports (abridged)
Thursday, March 13, 2014
7:30pm
$27.50

From the earliest cavemen playing “Neanderthal in the Middle” to your own kid’s soccer practice, the entire history of athletic competition will be regurgitated in a Tour de France of physical theater, at a level of sophistication and pathos that only the Reduced Shakespeare Company can muster. It’ll be a marathon of madness and mayhem as the world’s great sporting events are shrunk down to theatrical size.

ERTH’s dinosaur puppets stimulate the imagination about dinosaur life in a way that connects children to the real science of paleontology.

In this show, children get to meet ERTH’s awesome prehistoric creatures, from cute baby dinos to teeth-gnashing giants. Get up close and personal with an amazing array of creatures from bygone eras. Meet a menagerie of insects, mammals, and dinosaurs that once roamed free around the southern hemisphere and are now in residence at ERTH’s Dinosaur Zoo™.

Suitable for ages 5+.

Ancient life-like dinosaurs are alive and mostly friendly(!) in this fun, educational, and unique performance event that will delight children of all ages.
THE MIDTOWN MEN

4 Stars From The Original Broadway Cast of Jersey Boys
Friday, October 11, 2013
7:30pm
$28.50 / 39.50 / 50.50 / 61.50

This sensational production reunites four stars from the original cast of Broadway's Jersey Boys. Tony® Award winner Christian Hoff, Michael Longoria, Daniel Reichard, and Tony® Award nominee J. Robert Spencer, star in this one-of-a-kind concert experience celebrating the music that defined the '60s.

These talented entertainers shared the Broadway stage for over a thousand performances in the mega-hit Jersey Boys. Now, as The Midtown Men, they have thrilled crowds on concert stages and symphony halls across the continent and have delighted television audiences with performances on “Good Morning America,” “Access Hollywood,” “Katie,” and “The Chew.” Additionally, the Men collaborated with rock and roll icon Stevie Van Zandt on their first radio single, “All Alone On Christmas,” featuring Van Zandt and members of Bruce Springsteen’s E Street Band.

Don’t miss this electrifying and soulful new production with its top-shelf choreography, incredible vocal performances, and legendary onstage chemistry.

Book One: Target Earth
Thursday, April 10, 2014
7:30pm
$32.00 / 38.50

The Intergalactic Nemesis Live-Action Graphic Novel is a one-of-a-kind theatrical experience that mashes up radio drama with comic-books. Three actors voice dozens of characters; one Foley artist creates hundreds of sound effects; one keyboardist performs a score of thousands (yes, thousands!) of notes; all while more than 1,250 individual, full-color, hand-drawn, hi-res, blow-your-mind comic book images are projected onto a two-story high screen to tell the story visually. LIVE.

Inspired by Raiders of the Lost Ark, Star Wars, and the pulp serials of the 1930s, The Intergalactic Nemesis is a spectacle unlike any other and it’s for the kid in everyone. The year is 1933. Are you ready for the adventure? Featured on “CONAN” and NPR’s “All Things Considered!”

100 Years of Great Music!

Oktoberfest! October 12, 2013, 7:30pm
Three great German masters all in one night! At the opening downbeat you’ll be blown away by the vigorous Flying Dutchman. Then, the beautiful Death and Transfiguration will give you time to recover before launching into Beethoven’s most famous refrain. Bavarian travel information in the lobby will help round out the complete Oktoberfest experience.

Wagner: Flying Dutchman
Overture
Strauss: Death and Transfiguration
Beethoven: Symphony no 5

Heritage! November 9, 2013, 7:30pm
Come celebrate three influences on our Northeast Wisconsin culture. We’ll honor Native American Heritage Month with Oneida/Lakota soprano Jennifer Stevens singing three of her songs arranged by award-winning local composer Alaric Coussons. 150 years of French influence will be celebrated with the great French composer Georges Bizet. Finally, what better way to recognize this area’s mass European migration of the 19th century than with Dvorak’s New World Symphony? Lobby displays by area historical organizations.

Jennifer Stevens: 3 short vocal works
Bizet: L’Arlesienne Suite 1, plus Farandole
Dvorak: Symphony no 9

Holiday Pops December 13 & 14, 2013, 7:30pm
What could instill the Christmas spirit more than GBSO’s annual Holiday Pops concert with Dudley Birder at the baton? A great chorale, little children in white gowns proceeding up the aisles to the stage, a superb orchestra, and an iconic music maestro—all bringing you the best in Christmas favorites. Only the Grinch wouldn’t love this show!

Christmas Brass & Organ December 21, 2013, 7:30pm
St. John the Evangelist Church.
Join us for an intimate evening of classical Christmas music in the beautiful surroundings of St. John the Evangelist Church. Hear GBOSO’s brilliant brass ensemble accompanied by St. John’s resounding pipe organ played by Green Bay’s own Jeff Verkuilen. Seating is limited. Consider a season subscription to ensure your place in this elegant atmosphere.

Great Music from the Old World March 8, 2014, 7:30pm
The early Baroque masters influenced all forms of music that followed, from 18th century Classical to today’s pop and rock tunes. Come and hear for yourself as guest artist and conductor Samantha George explains the connections. Then enjoy iconic works from two Baroque masters—Johann Sebastian Bach and Antonio Vivaldi.

Bach: Orchestral Suite #3 in D major
Vivaldi: Four Seasons, featuring violin soloist Samantha George

Ode to Joy! April 12, 2014, 7:30pm
Perhaps no work of classical music is as awe-inspiring as Beethoven’s ninth symphony with its “Ode to Joy” refrain sung by a 200-voice choir. No wonder this piece of music has been used over and again in numerous commercial applications. And if you like classical vocals, you won’t want to miss nationally-known mezzo-soprano Kelley O’Connor as she sings Brahms’ Alto Rhapsody. The combination is a deserving way to wrap up our 100th season of great music.

Brahms: Alto Rhapsody, featuring mezzo-soprano Kelley O’Connor
Beethoven: Symphony no 9

Great Music from the Old World February 8, 2014, 7:30pm
Ever heard an Eruhu? Want to experience the fusion of East meets West? World-renowned ehuu soloist Jiebing Chen performs a beautiful orchestrated work about two young lovers. We’ll also take you to Italy, Spain, and New York City with this musical excursion around the world.

Rossini: Barber of Seville
He: Butterfly Lovers, featuring ehuu soloist Jiebing Chen
Bernstein: On the Town
De Falla: Three Cornered Hat

UW-GREEN BAY UNIVERSITY THEATRE 2013•2014 Mainstage Season

Crimes of the Heart
by Beth Henley
October 17-19, 23-26, 2013 • 7:30pm
Jean Weidner Theatre

The scene is Hazlehurst, Mississippi, where the three Magrath sisters have gathered in the family home. Lenny, the oldest sister, is unmarried at thirty and facing diminishing marital prospects; Meg, the middle sister, is back after a failed singing career on the West Coast; while Babe, the youngest, is out on bail after having shot her husband in the stomach. Their troubles are grave and yet, somehow, hilarious. This winner of the 1981 Pulitzer Prize for Drama is poignant and filled with humor.

Avenue Q, The Musical
Music and Lyrics by Robert Lopez and Jeff Marx, Book by Jeff Whitty
November 21 & 22, 2013 • 7:30pm
November 23, 2013 • 5:00pm & 7:30pm
University Theatre

Rated R for strong language and adult themes.

Communicating Doors
by Alan Ayckbourn
April 25 & 26, May 1-3, 2014 • 7:30pm
University Theatre

*Add this show to your subscription package! Advance tickets $15

An intricate time traveling comic thriller. A London sex specialist from the future stumbles into a murder plot that sends her, compliments of a unique set of hotel doors, traveling back in time. She and two women who were murdered in the same room decades earlier, race back and forth in time trying to rewrite history and prevent their own violent ends. As the play progresses, the boundaries of time and space become increasingly clear and the play’s momentum builds.

Jazz Fest with Kenny Werner
Saturday, February 1 • 4:00pm
Jazz Fest XLIII features internationally acclaimed jazz pianist, author, composer, and teacher, Kenny Werner. The festival hosts high school jazz bands on the UWGB campus for adjudication with professional jazz musicians and a master class. Two jazz bands are selected to perform alongside the UWGB Jazz I Ensemble and Kenny Werner in this afternoon concert.

*Add this concert to your subscription package! Advance tickets $12

A new concert series presented by UW-Green Bay’s Music program offers new perspectives on diverse musical styles. 360° Thursdays feature scintillating and provocative discussions by a composer, performer or arranger. Together, you will consider a single aspect of the music through multiple perspectives. Diverse styles are performed to broaden horizons and deepen understanding.

*Add this show to your subscription package! Advance tickets $22

Winner of the Tony® “Triple Crown” for Best Musical, Best Score and Best Book, AVENUE Q is a gut-busting hilariously modern musical focusing on a group of unique 20-somethings making their way in the big city, seeking their purpose in life. Although the show addresses humorous adult issues, it is similar to a beloved children’s show; a place where puppets are friends, monsters are good and life lessons are learned.

Censored on Final Approach
by Phylis Ravel
February 27 & 28, March 1, 5-8, 2014 • 7:30pm
Jean Weidner Theatre

During World War II, an elite group of female pilots, championed by pioneer American aviator Jacqueline Cochran, were selected to serve as Wasps. Women Airforce Service Pilots. They were not embraced by their male counterparts and struggled for acceptance on a daily basis. Censored...brings to life a dark time of bigotry, sabotage, and the consequent cover-up of an all but forgotten chapter of American history.

DanceWorks
April 4 & 5, 2014 • 7:30 pm
University Theatre

Join us as we celebrate dance in a concert of faculty and student choreography representing a diverse medley of styles.
